A Season for Nonviolence "Local Hero" Nomination

Do you know:

- · Someone who nurtures the spirit of nonviolence in your community and uniquely demonstrates that Peace begins with them through their daily practice of nonviolence.
- · An organization in your community that transcends race, gender, ethnic, economic boundaries, resulting in demonstrating peace...
- · A teacher/minister/ co-worker who moves you and others from despair to hope, from violence to forgiveness, from apathy to action, from problem to solution through creative
- Someone who through education, inspiration and/or cooperative action creates an environment that honors the dignity and worth of every human being...
- Someone who just plain MAKES A DIFFERENCE in a noticeable way.

You are invited to participate in our annual 64-day campaign A Season for Nonviolence by nominating a "local hero"- someone who is living the principles of nonviolence in their daily life and making a significant contribution to peace in our community. They will be recognized and acknowledged at a Wednesday Evening service at Agape between January 30th and April 4th. The "local hero" does not have to be an Agape member but they must be a Los Angeles resident, and they must be available to receive the award in person.
